Art Unit: 1793

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3, 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tanaka et al. 6207123.

The discussion in the specification of this reference is noted, as is the attempt to exclude the evaporation step thereof. Therefore, a detailed explanation of the reference is not believed to be necessary. However, the 'can be ... without' limitation does not actually exclude any step. See the abstract, which teaches trona. See col. 2 bottom for claim 3. Col. 3 lines 30-35 teach claim 6. Col. 7 line 30 teaches claim 9- and when the recycling is performed, then claim 7 is performed too.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tanaka. Tanaka does not teach the concentration of claims 4 and 5, however col. 4 bottom teaches 30% Na carbonate, rendering claims 4 and 5 obvious as routine variation- see In re Boesch 205 USPQ 215. In so far as claims 7 and 9 are not explicitly demonstrated (are optional) then performing them is an obvious expedient to obtain the desired carbonate product.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 1793

Claims 3 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A) Claim 3 is unclear, especially as to what 'into' means.

B) Claim 9 is unclear because it uses the term 'mother liquor' to refer to a different solution from that of claim 1.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
